The Bridesmaids

Jesus told another parable about God's reign.

"Ten bridesmaids went to wait for the groom. Five of them were prepared: they took extra oil for their lamps. The other five did not. The bridesmaids waited and waited. What was taking the groom so long? Finally, they fell asleep.

"At midnight, someone shouted, 'The groom will be here soon!' and the bridesmaids all woke up. But their lamps had run out of oil! The ones who didn't have extra oil had to go and find some. While they were gone, the groom arrived. Those poor bridesmaids missed the whole party."

"That's a sad story," someone said. "What does it mean?"

Jesus said, "No one knows when God's reign will come. People need to be patient and be ready."
